

A TASTE OF FRANCE:

COME CELEBRATE THE LIBERATION OF PARIS IN AUGUST OF 1944 WITH LITERATURE, MUSIC AND FOOD
SATURDAY, AUGUST 23 AT NOON

Historic Good Shepherd Episcopal Church
814 Markham Road, Tryon, N.C.

A reading from a WW II espionage novel by former intelligence officer
Arthur McMaster.

Music by pianist Peter Kutt, Constance Green, Mari Hashimoto, Regina
Maimone, Alex Nuesse, and PJ Thiessen.

Food from France with suggestions for wine pairings.

$25 for the general public; $15 for Good Shepherd congregants